PLAINTIFFS' LOCAL
CIVIL RULE 56.1
STATEMENT OF UNDISPUTED FACTS

05 Civ. 1572 (RJS) (JCF)

Pursuant to Rule 56.1 of the Local Rules of this Court, plaintiffs submit that the following facts are undisputed.

1. Aubryn Sidle was present near the World Trade Center site on August 31, 2004, intending to participate in a march. (Tr. at 152; Weber Decl. Ex. A.)

2. Aubryn Sidle heard a police officer announce that the march would be allowed to proceed if the participants followed police instructions and stayed on the sidewalk. (Tr. at 156.)

3. Another police officer motioned to Aubryn Sidle to cross Church Street. (Tr. at 158.)

4. Aubryn Sidle crossed Church Street and began to walk on the Fulton Street sidewalk in a narrow line of people. (Tr. at 157-60.)

5. Aubryn Sidle was prevented from continuing forward and was trapped in orange police netting without having been given any opportunity to disperse. (Tr. at 159-61.)

6. Before Aubryn Sidle was arrested, she did not hear any warnings that arrests were going to be made. (Tr. at 186.)
